

IN RE:

TERESA ROSE, TOM PECK

01 - Elec. App. – 018 (KC)

This matter is an appeal from the Election Administrator's decision 2001 EAD 86, issued January 22, 2001, in the Office of the Election Administrator's Case Nos. E10511ME, E10512ME; E010911ME; E010912ME; E010913ME; E010914ME; E010915ME; E010916ME; E010917ME; E010918ME; E010919ME; and E0109110ME. The appeal hearing was requested on January 24, 2001 by David Zeek, a member of Teamsters Local Union 100 in Cincinnati, Ohio.

A hearing was held before me on January 29, 2001. The following people were heard by way of teleconference: Jeffery J. Ellison, Esq. and Lisa Taylor for the Election Administrator's Office; Mr. Zeek; Mr. Ken Barnes, President of Local Union 100; Mr. Timothy Montgomery, election committee chairman for Local Union 100; Ms. Lisa Bowers and Ms. Sarah McFarland, employees of Local Union 100 and the Local Union 100 Titan operators. No further submission were received on this matter.

In the interest of an expedited disposition, on the application of the Election Administrator, the decision of the Election Administrator as to Mr. Peck is reversed, and I find Tom Peck eligible to run for delegate to the International Convention.

With respect to the eligibility issue of Ms. Rose, based upon the analysis in the Election Administrator's January 22, 2001 decision, as supplemented by the convincing analysis made by Mr. Ellison at the hearing, which was not disputed by Ms. Rose's representative Mr. Zeek, I affirm the decision of the Election Administrator and find Teresa Rose ineligible to run for delegate from Local Union 100 to the International Convention.
